CHARTER FOR RESPONSIBLE TRAVELLERS

Are you worried about the environment? So are we!

Here are some simple actions you can commit to and be more respectful of our surroundings:

It's even better to buy local products and in season! As with all fruit and vegetables, it's important to also respect the seasonality of fish and shellfish.

Leave the car behind and grab your bike or head out on foot. Find out about hire at www.velopalebalades.com, and pick up a map of soft mobility paths at the Tourist Office.

Dog waste bag dispensers are provided for your use in the station.

Recharge your car at our smart charging stations at the Parking des Oyats in Sainte Cécile and at the Hôtel Akena on Rue du Vieux Moulin in Camiers.

Wooden crates can be found at entry points to the beaches for disposing of rubbish or plants that you have collected during your walks on the beach.

For those who enjoy seashore fishing, we suggest a quick refresher on the rules to follow. Page 19.

The Tourist Office can provide you with lots of information, so come and ask our advice!

A RESPONSIBLE DESTINATION

Quality in a tourist office is essential to ensure a positive and rewarding experience for visitors. It rests on a number of fundamental pillars:

- ▲ Ensuring a warm, personalised and professional welcome.
- ▲ Training staff to answer visitors' questions and expectations.
- ▲ Providing accurate and up-to-date information.
- ▲ Ensuring easy access to brochures, maps and digital media tailored to visitors' needs.
- ▲ Gathering visitor feedback through satisfaction questionnaires.
- ▲ Maintaining a clean and pleasant environment within the tourist office.

- ▲ Organising clear, well laid-out areas to improve visitor flow.

- ▲ Working with local players to promote varied activities, events and accommodation.
- ▲ Showcasing the region's special features, including its heritage, culture and gastronomy.
- ▲ Committing to schemes for certifications or labels.
- ▲ Ensuring that the premises and information are accessible to people with disabilities.
- ▲ Promoting adapted solutions for all types of public (families, senior citizens, groups, etc.).

Station Verte: An Authentic and Natural Destination. A benchmark label for nature tourism, a Station Verte (Green Resort) is a destination committed to offering holidays that respect the environment.

Perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, this label promotes unspoilt areas where nature-friendly activities such as hiking, forest walks, discovering the local heritage and watersports are all available.

YOUR EXPERIENCES

Karine, mum of 2

"As a mum, spending a week in Sainte-Cécile with my two children was a fantastic experience! The beach is simply perfect for families. The fine sand and wide open spaces meant that my children spent hours playing, building sandcastles and running around freely. They also enjoyed collecting shells and watching the little sea creatures at low tide."

Théo, Laure, Céline and Gabriel, long-standing friends

"Our week together in Sainte-Cécile was simply incredible! As watersports enthusiasts, we found our paradise. We were able to embark on a new adventure each day: paddle, kayak, sand yacht... There are so many activities to try that we didn't know where to turn!

The sand yacht was a real favourite. Speeding along the beach powered by the wind was a unique and memorable experience. We also enjoyed the calm of the sea and the challenge of keeping our balance on paddleboards."

Nathalie and Pierre, keen hikers

"As lovers of hiking and nature, Sainte-Cécile was a haven of peace for us. The paths lining the dunes and the beach offered rejuvenating walks, lulled by the sound of the waves and the sea air. Each walk presented its own unique panorama, with vast stretches of sand, wooded areas and breathtaking views of the sea.

We especially enjoyed exploring the Natural Reserve of the Baie de Canche. The wealth of wildlife and plants there is exceptional, and we were able to observe rare birds and enjoy the absolute peace and quiet of this unspoilt area. The diversity of the landscapes meant there was plenty to see and do, from coastal walks to hikes through the dunes.

The sunsets on the beach rounded off our days, and were simply magical, providing the perfect moment to relax and appreciate the beauty of nature."

SEASHORE FISHING

of seashore fishing? Pop on your wellies and let the tide reveal its secrets!

Seashore fishing is a fun, family-friendly way to enjoy nature while discovering the sea's hidden treasures. At low tide, set off along the beach in search of shellfish, tiny crabs and other marine wonders. This hands-on activity suitable for all ages, combines fun, discovery and respect for the marine environment.

Grab a bucket and a net and head off for a one-of-a-kind seaside adventure. Just remember to respect minimum catch sizes and help preserve the fragile coastal ecosystem so everyone can keep enjoying it.

Ready to experience the magic

For any information concerning the regulations in force, you can contact the Direction Départementale des Territoires et de la Mer:
+33 (0)3 61 31 33 00 – ddtm-dml-saml@pas-de-calais.gouv.fr

OUR HINTS

Before heading out

- Check the fishing sanitary conditions of the fishing areas.
- Check the tide times and coefficients.

A minimum coefficient of 80 is required and you must be on site 1.5 hours before low tide.

- Check the weather forecast and inform someone of your expected return time, especially if you are going alone.

While fishing

- Respect fishing and consumption restrictions. Respect sizes, quantities, and seasonality.

Remember to get a measuring stick, which is available from the Tourist Office.

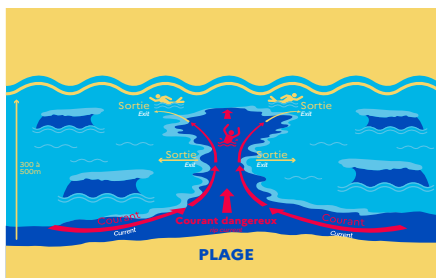

- Watch the tide and come back 45 minutes after low tide to avoid getting caught out.
- Only catch what you can eat; do not overfish.
- Do not touch professional equipment.

TIDES

Tides, while essential to the natural balance of ecosystems, can be particularly dangerous, especially if you're not familiar with their dynamics. Walkers and swimmers can easily become trapped on sandbanks due to the rapid rise and fall of the tide, known as ebb and flow. Even experienced swimmers can be swept away by tidal currents, which can be powerful and unpredictable.

Additionally, tides vary depending on the region and the phase of the moon, making some beaches more prone to exceptionally high or low tides. It is essential that you check tide schedules and remain alert to rapid changes in the coastal environment.

NATURE ESCAPADES

OUR WALKING TRAILS

— DOMAINE DU ROHART

A natural site within the commune of Camiers, the Domaine du Rohart spreads over a dozen hectares. Located north of Baie de Canche, it is nestled in the heart of a complex of exceptional natural spaces. The landscape is a mixture of forest habitats and reed beds that are home to remarkably diverse biotopes containing over 180 plant species. The Rohart estate has a one-kilometre-long wooden board walk and is located close to the Sainte Cécile dune trail.

— THE NATIONAL NATURAL RESERVE OF THE BAIE DE CANCHE

Classified as a National Nature Reserve in 1987, the Baie de Canche is home to an exceptional diversity of animals and plants. The panoramic vista from the highest point of the site offers breathtaking views over hundreds of hectares of wilderness. It is home to a multitude of landscapes and the undulating landscape of dunes, pools and channels all change in line with the seasons and the tides.

The reserve is accessible from Camiers, or Étaples-sur-mer. Dogs are not allowed.

LARGE-SCALE EXHIBITION ABOUT WORLD WAR I

Permanent exhibition
Place of Remembrance
Rue John Mc Crae
62176 CAMIERS

Like many of the villages on the home front of the Opal Coast, Camiers was deeply affected by the First World War.

From spring 1915 onwards, men and women serving in the army from the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth countries (Australia, Canada, South Africa, etc.) began to settle in the area, initially in the British camp at Étaples, and then at Camiers. The village not only became the base for the Machine Gun Corps (machine gun training camps) but also the site for British, Canadian and American military hospitals.

After the war, the English camp

SAINT FÉLICIEN CHAPEL IN SAINTE CÉCILE

Saint Félicien

Chapel Rue des Lys| 62176 SAINTE CÉCILE

Welcome to the Saint Félicien Chapel! Built in 1964, and later expanded by architect Marc Lenouvel, it was embellished by artist Fleur Nabert in 2024. The general idea was to draw inspiration from the beauty of the Côte d'Opale to create a sensory experience that leads to introspection.

Architect Marc Lenouvel designed the plans for this contemporary renovation, and the interior was beautifully decorated by sculptor Fleur Nabert. The entrance to the chapel is adorned with translucent stained glass windows depicting symbols of faith, hope, and charity, evocative of the nearby sea. The stained glass windows, created by Atelier Loire in Chartres, create a gradient of light that leads to the choir.

The chapel can accommodate up to 150 people and is characterised by a long-pitched roof and coated concrete walls. It also features by a large wooden cross and a metal bell holder.

The chapel combines modernity and spirituality, offering visitors a unique and contemplative experience.

NOTRE DAME DE LA MER CHURCH IN CAMIERS

Église Notre Dame de la Mer
Rue de l'Église | 62176 CAMIERS

The church of Notre Dame de la Mer was built on the eve of World War I. It is built predominantly from Baincthun stone, which gives the exterior walls of the church a special character. Its somewhat stocky porch opens out under an elegant bell tower. The decorative elements were carefully observed and the mosaics on the outside, above the porch, are similar to those found in Amiens Cathedral.

As soon as visitors enter the church, their eyes are drawn to the high altar; it is an imposing work of art that depicts the Virgin Mary controlling the waves. According to master glassmakers Rolland and Dewidehem, the church had the most beautiful stained glass windows in the region before the war. And these renovated stained glass windows are the highlight of any visit to Notre Dame Church, which is open every school holiday on Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from June to September on Saturday and Sunday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. At the top of the 40-metre bell tower, you can also see the new
